

Father, we know we are saved by your grace through faith. We are heirs together of the grace of life. As we show love, respect, honor, and grace to each other, we are assured that our prayers together make tremendous power available, power that is dynamic in its working.

Your Word tells us that you long to be gracious to us; that you rise to show us compassion. We are truly amazed and overwhelmed by your grace, your favor, and your unconditional love. You are so generous and kind to us, Father. Your grace motivates and compels us to fall down before you in worship and adoration. You are good and your loving-kindness, mercy, and grace are from everlasting to everlasting.

Holy Spirit, teach us to be compassionate, loving, and gracious to each other, just as the Father has been to us. May the grace of God be upon every aspect of our lives together. May our conversation, our decisions, our activities, our finances, and our physical and emotional relationship - everything about our marriage - be covered in grace.

Thank you, Lord, that your grace makes us united in spirit, loving, compassionate, tender-hearted and courteous to each other. May your grace bring welfare, happiness, protection and blessing in abundance into our marriage. May our home be so filled with your grace that everyone who enters may sense your abiding presence.

In Jesus' name, Amen!
