

Father, thank you for your presence in our lives individually, and in our marriage. Of all the many wonderful blessings we enjoy, this is the greatest of them all: not the things you give us, but you, yourself, being with us.

Thank you for our marriage, Father. Thank you that Jesus is our Savior and Lord. We are truly blessed. Thank you for bringing us into harmony and peace with you and each other. Thank you for working out your will in us. We pray that we would always be teachable and as pliable as clay, formed by your loving hands into vessels of your glory.

Thank you for never leaving nor forsaking us. You are always with us, gently guiding and encouraging us, as we walk together along life's path. As we journey together, help us to listen to each other, and to your voice as our Good Shepherd. Because of your love and faithfulness, our every need is richly supplied. We lack for no good thing.

Thank you for the rest and refreshing that comes to us from the gentle winds of your Spirit. Thank you for the covenant blessings of healing and protection that have come to us through your grace. Thank you that you have given us every blessing pertaining to life and godliness. Truly, our path grows brighter and brighter towards the perfect day.

Teach us each day to appreciate you more and more and to live in your presence continually. May it always be our honor and joy to yield our hearts and home to you. May others sense your glorious presence in us, and be drawn to the beauty and blessing of your love.

In Jesus' name we pray, Amen!
