

Father, in the name of Jesus, we thank you for this great nation—the United States of America. We thank you that it was founded on your Word, and faith in you alone. We thank you that this nation is blessed because of this foundation, and we desire to continue to live under a banner of blessing through our obedience to you.

Father, we know our strength as believers lies in our unity because your Word says a house divided against itself cannot stand. So, today, in the name of Jesus, we come against the spirit of division and strife in the Body of Christ. We cast down every attempt by the enemy to divide believers into separate groups. We refuse to accept the worldview that we must be a part of groups such as race, gender, class or any other group. We are Christians. That is where we stand—that is where we find our identity—in you and only in you.

We bind the enemy's attempts to divide us from our fellow believers, and we declare today that we will stand in the unity of faith with our brothers and sisters in Christ. If we have a difference of political opinion, we will humble ourselves and compare our views to the Word of God to make our final decision.

Lord, help us to resist the influences of friends, family or media that may try to sway us away from the Word of God. Help us to fill our hearts and minds with the truth in your Word and stand on it—immovable, unshakable, and firm in our faith.

Father, breathe a fresh wind of unity over this nation. Let your Holy Spirit dominate every area of our government, our churches, our schools, and our homes. Help us, as believers, to walk in love and unity together, so that all may see that we are one and know the power of the one true, living God.

We praise you and thank you for it, in Jesus' name. Amen!
