

Father, we pray today for our brothers and sisters in Christ who are being persecuted for their faith. We declare that you are Jehovah-El Roi, the God who sees. You have seen with your own eyes the oppression of your people, and their cries for deliverance have come to your ears. You have not forgotten the blood of your Son sprinkled on the heavenly mercy seat, nor failed to honor the covenant established by His blood.

You are Jehovah-Jireh, the God who faithfully provides. You have seen the needs, spiritual and physical, of your people in the lands of the oppressed. Before we pray you hear, and dispatch heaven's resources to abundantly meet the needs of your suffering church.

Thank you, Holy Spirit, for supernaturally supplying Bibles to these countries so that our brothers and sisters in Christ may be fed and sustained by the living bread of God's Word. Send millions of Bibles into these nations by every possible means and protect Bible-smugglers as they cross borders. We also ask you to call and anoint apostles, prophets, evangelists, pastors and teachers within these nations to strengthen and equip your saints for the work of the ministry, and the building up of the Body of Christ.

Father, we pray that you would give to your persecuted church the spirit of wisdom and revelation in the knowledge of you, the eyes of their understanding being enlightened; that they may know what is the hope of your calling, and what are the riches of the glory of your inheritance in the saints, and what is the exceeding greatness of your power toward us who believe, according to the working of your mighty power which you worked in Christ when you raised Him from the dead and seated Him at your right hand in the heavenly places, far above all principality and power and might and dominion, and every name that is named, not only in this age, but also in that which is to come.

God of Abundance, your Word says you execute judgement for the oppressed, you give food to the hungry and freedom to the prisoners. You satisfy the longing soul, and fill the hungry soul with goodness. Therefore, we ask you to supernaturally supply the physical and financial needs of your oppressed people: food, shelter, jobs, and financial aid. Speak to the hearts of the Body of Christ in wealthy nations and inspire generosity to meet these needs.

Be glorified, Father, by the triumphant faith and the unfailing love of your people in the fiery furnace of persecution! May Jesus continually radiate from their lives dispelling every trace of darkness.

In Jesus' name, Amen!
